

Conference Call Announcement

Argus Research will host a conference call for clients at 11 a.m. ET on Thursday, December 6, 2018. Originally, this call was to occur on Wednesday, December 5, but has been rescheduled due to the national day of mourning to honor former President George H.W. Bush. The call is entitled Argus Analysts' Top Picks for 2019.

Argus Director of Research Jim Kelleher, CFA, will host the call, which will be in webinar format. He will be joined by Argus President John Eade. The year 2018 has been a wild one for stocks, with two corrections, a strong middle of the year, and deep uncertainty into year end. Experienced investors know that crisis creates opportunities, and our analysts are searching for the strongest candidates amid the chaos.

Moving beyond the near-term noise, Jim and John will describe the operating outlooks, including competitive advantage and growth dynamic, as well as valuations for a group of high-quality stocks that our analysts regard as well-positioned for outperformance in 2019.

Please note that the Investments & Wealth Institute has accepted Argus' Monthly Conference Call for one (1) hour of continuing education (CE) credit toward the CIMA/CIMC/CPWA certifications. The program has also been accepted by CFP Board for one (1) hour of CE credit.

The call, as always, will be interactive with a question-and-answer period. We will be recording the call, and a rebroadcast will be available on the password-protected portion of our website. Slides related to the presentation will be posted on our website the day of the call and also will be available via the webcast itself.

To register for the call, please see the instructions on the first page of the PDF version of any Market Digest or Market Update report dated December 3, 2018, or later. If you have any problems registering, contact us at clientservices@argusresearch.com or by calling (212) 425-7500.
